aggressive, innovative mishap prevention programs.

3. FY 25 CNO Safety Award plaques will be forwarded to the winners via their respective echelon II commands as this award is a significant accomplishment. CNO requests each award presentation be made by a flag officer within the winner's chain of command.

4. All award winners are recognized for their exceptional professionalism, commitment to excellence, solid leadership, teamwork, and an in-depth risk management culture which resulted in safe and effective operations. All nominees are to be commended for the significant contributions they have made toward reducing mishaps, increasing mission readiness, and preserving our most precious asset, Sailors and civilians. Congratulations to all for a job well done.
